Ethics by design or jumping through hoops – supporting researchers with ethics self-assessment

Ka Wing Falkena, Privacy Officer
Joanna Baskott, Team Leader Research Services

Case study for 7th ERION Meeting - 04 May 2021
You can do (almost) anything explain and document in a clear and structured way.

You can't stop me no matter who you are.
Here are some examples
Some examples

Consent

PERMISSION SLIP, SIGNED.
NOW TIME FOR A BREAK,
Some examples

Collecting data from remote environments

Dealing with non-EU data protection laws
Some examples

Benefit sharing
Some of the challenges
Challenges

Third countries ethics approval
Challenges

Trial and error

If at first you don't succeed, try, try again.
Challenges

Policies on incidental findings
Reflection

• Ethics panels as control or support?
  • Experience of researcher